

Simchat Torah Celebration - Rejoicing in the Torah
Friday, October 5th • 7pm

This holiday marks the completion of the annual cycle of weekly Torah readings. Each week in synagogue we publicly read a few chapters from the Torah. On Simchat Torah, we read the last Torah portion of Deuteronomy, and then proceed immediately to the first chapter of Genesis, reminding us that the Torah is a circle, and never ends.

At Temple Beth El, we mark the beginning of a child's Jewish education at this time.
