

2010 Temple Beth El Campership Application

Temple Beth El recognizes the value and enrichment to our community provided by Jewish camps and is pleased to be able to offer need-based financial assistance of up to $500 toward camp fees, thanks to the generosity of our congregation. We offer our members camperships to pay the fees at a Jewish overnight camp or at our own Camp Kayetz day camp. Distribution of funds is based on financial need; the campership fund cannot be used for families who are simply unwilling to cover the costs. Camperships are for temple members only.

The application deadline for overnight camps is February 1, 2010. The application deadline for Camp Kayetz is April 20, 2009. The Temple Campership Committee considers all requests with the aim of benefiting the most children.

Along with this completed form, the camper must submit a 100-200-word essay describing what he or she hopes to gain from the summer camp experience. Younger campers may draw a picture as an alternative to an essay. You may also attach an explanation of any special circumstances that may influence your family's ability to pay for camp tuition.
