

Reform Judaism; The Next Generation

A very special Shabbaton Weekend

April 9-11

With special guests:

the URJ's North American Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY) President and Temple Beth El member, Aliza Gazek, along with Communications Vice President of NFTY-Central West Region Aly Pomerantz, also a member of Temple Beth El.

Aliza is the daughter of Shani Ginsburg and David Gazek.

Aly is the daughter of Jane Weed-Pomerantz and Ron Pomerantz.

There will be several events to choose from including a Rocking Shabbat with our guests and SRFY members, a regional youth group Saturday afternoon beach party, an elegant dinner and dessert auction Saturday evening and a special Temple School presentation Sunday morning by the young women.

We are very proud of Aliza and Aly. This is the first time a TBE member has been elected to the North American president position and yes this includes Canada and the Virgin Islands! TBE has had our teens elected to regional board in the past but just a very select few. It is quite a job. The Central West Region includes Northern CA, Nevada, Utah and Hawaii.

Details are being worked on for the weekend. Letty Bess is steering a fundraising/auction effort for this event. Kathy Goldenkranz is steering the programming side and the youth functions. Together we will all participate in selling those tickets. So beware!

Please look for fliers, invitations and a very special video of Aliza at the November Union of Reform Judaism Biennial Convention in Toronto, Canada as she addresses the Women of Reform Judaism and chants Torah which is the second link associated with the Reform Judaism blurb.

Take this as a SAVE THE DATE!
