

Hillel was a famous Jewish religious leader, associated with the development of the Mishnah and the Talmud. He is especially known for two sayings:

“If I am not for myself, who will be for me? If I am not for others, what am I? And if not now, when?”

and the expression of the ethic of reciprocity, or “Golden Rule”:

“That which is hateful to you, do not do to your fellow. That is the whole Torah; the rest is the explanation; go and learn.”
