

*Come join Brotherhood at these upcoming baseball games!
Families, friends and neighbors are definitely welcome. Here's the pitch:*

Jewish Appreciation Day with San Jose Giants

5:00 pm, Sunday, July 25

We're going to the Second Annual Jewish Appreciation Day with the San Jose Giants at 5 p.m. Sunday, July 25 at San Jose Giants Stadium, 588 East Alma Avenue in San Jose. Last year was a blast, complete with on-field Jewish-themed activities. Tickets are only $5 for this special promotion. A kosher meal ordered in advance will be available from 3:30 to 4:30 before the game in the parking lot next to the front gate. It's old-fashioned baseball between the first half champion San Jose Giants and High Desert Mavericks. Both teams have promising Major League Baseball prospects.

Please purchase tickets on-line at the link below.

A kosher hamburger or hotdog, chips and a soda or water is $13 if ordered in advance on-line at the link below. For those who want to carpool with other TBE'ers, let Michael Rein know at mike@reinlaw.net and Brotherhood will try to match you up.

Jewish Heritage Night with San Francisco Giants

7:15 pm, Tuesday, August 31

We've had so much fun the last two years, Brotherhood is going to do it again: Join us for our annual bus trek to Jewish Heritage Night at AT&T Park as the San Francisco Giants take on the Colorado Rockies at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, August 31. As before, our ultra-modern chartered bus will pick up riders at Temple Beth El and near the Hilton in Scotts Valley. We'll have on-board activities and snacks, and this year we'll have better seats in lower outfield boxes. Check out this year's freebie, a Jewish-themed Giants beanie.

Cost: $50 (you couldn't buy a game ticket and park your own car cheaper than that!). The bus holds 59 people, so reserve now by sending your check to Richie Solomon at 218 Eleana Dr., Ben Lomond, CA 95005.

Questions, email Steve Guiney at stevenguiney@sbcglobal.net or Michael Rein at mike@reinlaw.net.
