

Senior Connections Programs

January 2010

1:30 - 3:30 pm

Temple Beth El

January 11 - Let's Explore

Join us for the next installment of one of our popular 'Let's Explore' programs. This time, we will have a multi-faceted program reveling in our Jewishness, and especially in Yiddishkeit. We're calling it: 'It's Great to be Jewish'. Here's the plan:

We will begin with a fun (and non-competitive) Jewish Trivia quiz. Following that, we will have an interlude with Yiddish music and maybe a short story or two. As our finale, Lorraine Kalehuaikewekiu Kinnamon, a well-known Hula dancer and teacher in Santa Cruz (and daughter of our own Sonja Aiwohi), will speak about and perform a little Hula for us. You must be thinking: What could Hula possibly have to do with Jewishness or Yiddishkeit? Could there be such a think as a Yiddish Hula???? Please come and find out for yourselves.

January 25 - Piano Recital by students of Eileen Hodson

Enjoy "Music through the Ages, a piano performance offered by several students of Eileen Hodson, longtime Soquel music teacher. The program will include various pieces ranging from the baroque to contemporary periods. Eileen attended San Jose State University where she majored in music with an emphasis on organ performance. After a varied career in the work world and